

Miguel Pilgram Talks Motivation, Mindset and Millions

Miguel Pilgram comes from a Navy family. His father a Vietnam vet, his sister served in Desert Storm, both Miguel and his brother served in the Navy and his son who is currently in the Navy. The very idea of discipline and service to something greater than oneself is in his DNA. Miguel happily works twelve or more hours a day, serves his community and enjoys seeing his vision and brand come to life.

In 2010, Miguel formed The Pilgram Group (TPG). TPG, started out as a company that focused on renovating commercial, residential and maritime real estate, mostly in the Broward County area, and tapping into opportunities that support and enrich the community. Over the past several years, TPG has established a solid lifestyle brand that has expanded from real estate to now include restaurants, music venues and fashion.

Miguel will share his story of humble beginnings, serving his country, having an impressive career with one of the nation's leading cruise lines and building TPG. You will be able to hear about how his character, dedication and perseverance, along with his military mindset, continue to motivate him towards making a difference in the community and beyond.

Was it luck or was it his vision? Miguel, leaves nothing to chance. He believes in developing and speaking into existence the vision for the life you want to live. His commitment to family, community, and faith makes him one of the most successful African American entrepreneurs in the community.

It's a story that your audience will find informative, profound and genuine. Miguel's desire and ability to work hard, has opened up endless opportunities and possibilities to create a robust brand that's on a mission to expand internationally. With millions of dollars won, invested and earned - The Pilgram Group is one of the most innovative brands in South Florida.
